Pat;

I talked to Christian Adams about Ms. Cleminshaw not being willing to extend the deadline. He said that he was in court Thursday and the Judge "spanked" the plaintiff's lawyers about their approach to discovery, which I guess would mean their subpoena's being overly broad. Would it be worth your time to call her again to see if she has had a change in heart since Friday?

Besides the Attorney Client Privilege, what was the other term you used about her requests being hard to comply with?

So far I have not heard from her.
